++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Sunshine and showers, becoming warmer and sunnier into the weekend.

Today:
A cloudier day than of recent, with some sunny spells developing into the afternoon along side the occasional scattered shower. However, by the evening these begin to die out and some longer bright periods start to persist. Feeling warm. Maximum temperature 26 deg C (79 deg F).

Tonight:
A dry night with plenty of clear spells to begin with. Then into the later hours cloud moves in from the west, covering most of the region by morning. Minimum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Friday:
A dry and cloudy day for most, through cloud slowly begins to break up into the afternoon and allows some sunny spells to develop. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Dry and very warm over the weekend. The odd cloud seen on Saturday, but with sunshine throughout the region Sunday. Monday then sees cloud, and perhaps some light rain, return.
